

October Journal Topics

You may write about whatever you wish in your free write journal. Let your imagination run free!
These are just some suggestions if you run out of ideas of your own.

Topics

- A funny dream
- My allowance
- The broken window
- Under my bed
- If I were invisible
- Chocolate pudding
- When I was two
- Dinosaurs
- Bats
- A place I would like to visit
- In the dark
- Making a sandwich
- The biggest mess I ever made
- Night sounds
- Worms
- Tricks
- Treats
- Bedtime
- My sister (brother, aunt, cousin, mom, etc.)

Story Starters

- If you suddenly had a new baby brother or sister, how would you feel and why?
- I was embarrassed when
- Clouds remind me of ...
- I found a ...
- I am angry when ...
- I am most afraid of ...
- It's the fourth quarter. The score is Bulldogs 6, Home 0. Your team is playing the mighty Bulldogs. The Bulldogs have the football and are about to score again when you reach up and intercept a pass. Tell what happens next. How does the game end?
- Christopher Columbus sailed across the ocean searching for a new route to the Far East. An astronaut sails off into the sky to learn more about space. Compare the two. Which one is braver? Why?
- Pretend you are Christopher Columbus as an old man. What would you say to a young person who wanted to be an explorer?
- The Halloween party was over. I reached up to take off my mask. It wouldn't come off!
- The door to the living room slowly opened and in walked ...

- It was the best costume you ever had. Even your best friends didn't recognize you ...
- Imagine that you are a pumpkin – the last pumpkin in the field. The nights are getting colder and there is snow in the air. Won't someone come and take you home to a nice warm house? You hear voices and see someone coming toward you ...
- If I were a black cat ...
- Make up a rap song about your class.

Titles

- My Friend the Alien
- A Dangerous Voyage
- The Sounds of Halloween
- How to Trick a Goblin
- The Ghost Who Wanted a Friend
- My Life as a Football
- Cheerleader for a Day

