

September Journal Topics

You may write about whatever you wish in your free write journal. Let your imagination run free!
These are just some suggestions if you run out of ideas of your own.

Topics

- A yellow pencil
- New shoes
- Spiders
- In my desk
- If I were the teacher
- Ice cream cones
- My favorite book
- Secrets
- New friends
- A mud puddle
- At the beach
- On the school bus
- A fight with my best friend
- My pet
- My best subject
- Recess
- It makes me laugh
- Bananas
- Autumn
- Weekends
- A funny surprise
- Bubble gum
- In my lunch
- Ten good reasons to stay up late

Story Starters

- If you could give one thing that you value to someone else, what would it be and why?
- Describe a September day.
- Describe the first day of school as you thought it would be.
- Describe the first day of school as it actually happened.
- The best thing about fall is
- The worst thing about fall
- Pretend you are a leaf on a tall tree. Describe what happens to you when autumn comes. Tell how you change and feel.
- Think of some interesting ways to use the colorful fall leaves.
- It is fall in the woods. You are a little squirrel. How would you get ready for the coming winter?
- Describe your feelings when you hear the first school bell in September.
- The Sunday following Labor Day is National Grandparent's Day. Celebrate by writing about something that one of your grandparents taught you to do.
- Compare yourself to an animal. Tell how you are like that animal and in what ways you are different.

Titles

- How Fall Got Its Name
- Autumn Colors
- How to Climb a Tree
- Why Leaves Change Their Colors
- One Cold, Frosty Morning
- An Unusual Day at School
- The Hardest Part of the School This Year
- The Year the Leaves Turned Purple
- In the Squirrel's Nest

